

I support the GMO labeling bill. I have immunocompromised family members and we try very hard to avoid GMOs. The illness leads to intense sensitivities that most people do not face. Without labeling we are in the dark.

Please help us and others in our community with this simple request.

Carol Demure

Storrs CT